Friday, 20 August 2004

Washington DCS Policy Manual - 2006 This is a private site that is in no way associated with the State of Washington or any other government affiliated agency. The contents here are provided as a public service to the non-custodial parents of Washington State in the hopes of improving the relationship between them and their children.

The staff of the Washington State Division of Child Support operates under a very strict set of rules. Most people visiting this site might have other beliefs, or they disagree with those policies. However, these policies are in place to protect the citizens of Washington State. Lets not be so nieve as to think that all staff of DCS follows these policies. Understanding them will help to protect you from unwarranted actions.

Below is a set of the policies that DCS operates under, or they are supposed to operate under. If you have questions about these policies, our forum at <http://WashingtonSharedParenting.com/forum> is the place to discuss them. We encourage your comments and feedback that might help others.
